

If you have health related issues that may interfere with participation in certain labs due to materials used during certain investigations, you must provide documentation* to your TA from the Office of Student Disabilities Services no later than 14 days prior to that week's Investigation OR submit extra contributions to compensate for the absence (see "B. What if I miss a lab?" on pgG6 of Investigating Biology lab manual.

Laboratory Investigation (see Lecture Syllabus for Dates)	Possible allergen, irritant, etc.
1	Modeling Clay, Mice, Madagascar Hissing Cockroaches, Crickets
2	Dilute Bleach, Yeast, Milk, Dilute Sodium Phosphate
3	Dilute Acetic Acid, Ammonia, Fertilizer, Milk, Detergents, Yeast, Sodium phosphate, Potassium nitrate, Potassium phosphate monobasic, Dilute Bleach & Clorox Wipes
4	---

*It is the student's responsibility to obtain proper documentation and provide documentation/inform their Lab TA 14 days prior to particular Lab Investigation so customized accommodations can be made to allow student to safely complete the lab. Otherwise, student may submit an extra contribution to compensate for the absence per absence policy.